

UEMS Conference on CME-CPD in Europe

Friday 28th February 2014 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Brussels

Session 1 – The Political Environment

- Keynote Speaker : Dr. Andrzej Rys, Director, DG Health & Consumers, European Commission
- Speaker : Mr. András Zsigmond, Policy Officer, DG Internal Market & Services

Session 2 – The view of the profession

- Implementation of the new criteria for the accreditation of Live Educational Events (LEEs) – Dr. Edwin Borman, UEMS Secretary-general
- Recent developments and upcoming trends in CME-CPD in Europe – Dr. Len Harvey, UEMS Honorary member
- The International perspective:
 - o Dr. Alejandro Aparicio, Director, Div. of Continuing Physician Professional Development, American Medical Association
 - o Dr. Murray Kopelow, President and Chief Executive Officer, ACCME

Session 3 – The view of external partners

- The view of European Organisations:
 - o Ms Aline Lautenberg, EUCOMED General Counsel, Director Legal & Compliance
 - o Ms Nicole DEnjoy, COCIR Secretary general
- The view of Providers:
 - o Ms Julie Simper, Director of Continuing Education, Kenes Education
 - o Mr Eugene Pozniak, Managing Director, Siyemi Learning
 - o Dr. Sophie Wilson, Director, CME Services, International Medical Press
 - o Ms Rachel Clark, CEO, SSIF
- The view of Funders:
 - o Conversation with representative from major funding companies

Session 4 – Team-working session

Participants were divided into 6 groups that each dealt with the following topics:

- The Future:
 - o Areas for further development
 - o Responding to new technologies
 - o What more should the EACCME® accredit?
- Conflict of Interest (actual, potential, resolution)
- Needs assessment, learning objectives and educational outcomes

Session 5 – Looking ahead

All session materials may be found at:

<http://www.uems.eu/news-and-events/news/news-more/uems-conference-on-cme-cpd-in-europe-brussels-28.02.2014>